THEDA BARA'S BIG SUCCESS COMING TO MAMMOTH THEATRE

Theda Bara in her greatest motion picture triumph, "The Darling of Paris," is coming to the MAMMOTH Theatre, Monday, Sept. 1st. Those who years ago saw Miss Bara in the role of Esmeralda the heroine of Victor Hugo's immortal story "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," will want to see her in this super-production which is a revised, re-edited and strengthened version of the former screen success.

In the opinion of many, "The Darling of Paris" is the greatest picture ever produced by Miss Bara. It was selected by William Fox, the producer, as one of the nine best pictures he ever issued. When it was first issued, a few years ago, it created a sensation because of its powerful scenes.
